

Aging Puppies

A puppy's permanent incisors (the 12 teeth in the front of the mouth – 6 on top, 6 on bottom) usually come in at a predictable rate. The following pictures can be used as a guideline for determining the age of puppies between 12 and 24 weeks of age.

Permanent Canine Tooth
Deciduous Canine Tooth

Most dogs with dental tartar are likely at least 2-3 years old.

